Dear Roy,

Congratulations, you have been accepted to study abroad on the China: Beijing Language and Culture University program with the American Institute for Foreign Study for Summer 2007!

It is a good idea to share all information you receive from AIFS with your parents. Many of the questions you and your family will have about your program and the study abroad experience in general are answered in our literature as well as on our website.

If you have not already done so, please go to www.aifsabroad.com/login and create a username and password. Important messages and updates will be posted on our web portal, in addition to your flight information when it becomes available.

I am pleased to send you this acceptance packet. Prior to your departure, you will be receiving e-mails as well as mailings at your permanent home address. Please ask your parents to immediately forward you any materials they receive from AIFS while you are at school. Keep in mind failure to check your email is not a valid excuse for missing a deadline.

Please check your passport now to make sure it is valid for six months beyond the end of your program. If it is not, apply for a new passport immediately. If you do not have a passport or you need information about how to renew an existing passport, please visit the following website, <http://travel.state.gov/>.

A billing statement will be sent to your permanent address. AIFS does not accept payment over the phone. However, you may fill in the credit card information on the bottom of your billing statement and fax or send it in or you may send a check or money order to AIFS College Division. You may also pay online when logged into the AIFS web portal.

This study abroad experience will be one of the most exciting and rewarding times of your life and I look forward to working with you to make it happen! When you have questions, you may reach me at jtaylor@aifs.com or (800) 727-2437 ext. 5076.

Sincerely,

Jill Taylor

Important Information – Please keep with you on your journey to China

Itinerary: AIFS College Summer Program at Beijing Language and Culture University, Beijing, China Summer Abroad
June 21 – July 26, 2007

Thursday, June 21, 2007

Overnight flight from U.S. to Shanghai

Important Pre-departure Information

To board your flight you must have a valid passport and Chinese visa on your person. Never pack your passport! Make sure your passport is valid throughout the trip. We strongly advise you to make two copies of your passport. Leave one at home with your parents or guardian and bring one with you in case of loss or theft. Please keep the photocopy of your passport in a separate place from your actual passport.

Be sure to check-in at least 3 hours prior to the departure of your flight!

AIFS Round-Trip Flights

Transfers to and from campus are included for students who have booked their flights with AIFS, but only on the arrival/ departure dates and from the local airport as indicated in the 2007 AIFS Summer catalog. Seating assignments, if possible, must be made directly with the airline.

If you have a domestic connecting flight

If you have a domestic flight connecting your international flight, please be at the airport three hours prior to the scheduled departure time. Upon arrival at the airport, proceed directly to the check-in counter to check your bags and obtain your boarding pass(es). Show all your tickets to the counter agent and be sure to request that your luggage be “interlined” straight through to your final destination (Beijing). If you do not interline your luggage, you will have to collect it upon arrival for the international flight and check it through again.

Within the United States

If you are delayed on the way to the airport and think you are going to miss the flight, telephone the College Division Duty Officer in the Stamford Office. You may reach the Duty Officer by calling 1-800-727-2437. This number is staffed 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

If your flight is cancelled, you miss your flight or you are transferred to another flight by the airline please call the AIFS emergency number 1-800-727-2437 before you leave the U.S. so that we can have someone meet you when your new flight arrives. Airlines will not contact AIFS if they put you on a different flight and by law they cannot give out passenger flight information. If you cannot call before leaving the U.S. please contact AIFS representative Chloe Wang 1364 621 3839 on arrival in Shanghai.

Emergency Communications with AIFS

AIFS has a worldwide communications network and is ready to respond if family or medical emergencies arise. All AIFS students are covered by the most comprehensive medical and travel insurance package available, which includes 24/7 support. An AIFS emergency officer in the U.S is on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week for the duration of your program. If a crisis arises and your family needs to contact you at any time during the program use this number:

Emergency number in U.S.

Arrival in Shanghai

You will be met at the airport in Shanghai by an AIFS airport representative. If your luggage has been lost or delayed, do not leave the baggage reclaim area without filing a lost luggage report with the airline. After you have cleared customs in Shanghai, you should follow the exit signs that will take you out of the secure area. The AIFS representative will be waiting for you as you leave this area and will be holding a sign saying AIFS. In the unlikely event that you cannot locate the AIFS staff at the airport, please call 1364 621 3839 in Shanghai that day (this is not an international number). Chloe Wang is the AIFS representative.

You will then be transferred to your accommodation in Shanghai.

Thursday, July 26, 2007

Scheduled departure date

Return flight to the U.S.

If you are on an AIFS flight on this scheduled departure date we will transfer you to the airport. You will be given full details of your departure time once you are in China. Students who booked their own flight or are not departing on the scheduled date will have to arrange transportation to the airport at their own expense.

Return date changes made after tickets have been issued are solely the student's responsibility and must be made if possible directly with the airline while abroad, subject to its fees, availability and rules.

Students who change their return flight will have to arrange their own transportation to the appropriate airport at the end of the program at their own expense.

Please note that departure times and meeting places for all activities will be confirmed during orientation. Dates and itinerary are tentative are subject to change.

PLEASE CARRY THIS ITINERARY WITH YOU ON YOUR JOURNEY TO CHINA
