Dear Roy Chan,

We wanted to take this opportunity to thank you for expressing interest in the Arroyo Vista Community Programmer position. You were among many qualified applicants which made our decision a difficult one.

At the core of our selection philosophy is a commitment to finding the right individual for each specific opportunity. Our goal is to find the best fit between a person's strengths and the organization's needs. We believe this emphasis provides the greatest growth, satisfaction, and opportunities for both parties.

Your background and skills are impressive; however, we are unable to offer you a position at this time.

Again, thank you for your time and interest in the Community Programmer position in Arroyo Vista Housing. Best of luck to you in your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Kristen Clark
Programs Coordinator
Arroyo Vista Housing, UCI
