

December 29, 2011

Roy Yew-hung Chan
Room 407, Graduate House
3 University Drive
The University of Hong Kong
Pokfulam Hong Kong

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

The Comparative and International Education Society (CIES) has invited Roy Yew-hung Chan to be an official participant in its 56th Annual Conference, CIES 2012, to be held from April 22-27, 2012, at the Caribe Hilton in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

As the largest event in its field, the CIES Annual Conference draws a highly educated, international group of over 2000 academics, researchers, and practitioners in multiple disciplines—comparative education, international development, and global and regional studies. Detailed conference information can be found at www.cies2012.psu.edu

Roy Yew-hung Chan has been selected to participate in one or more roles as a paper presenter, session chair, or discussant. Roy Yew-hung Chan is scheduled to participate as part of the following presentation(s):

Individual Presentation Title: Students' Learning and Living Experience at World-Class Universities in China: A Comparative Case Study of HKU and SJTU, Presenter

The conference has been posted on the U.S. Department of State's Intranet Listing for Conferences in the U.S. CIES guarantees that Roy Yew-hung Chan's participation is unpaid.

Because the presence of the person named herein is critical to the success of our meeting, we ask that you offer all possible and appropriate collaboration to facilitate travel to the U.S. The participant may be leaving his or her country of origin earlier than April 22 and returning later than April 27 to attend pre- and post-conference events.

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "D. P. Baker".

David P. Baker, Ph.D
Professor of Education and Sociology
Penn State University
President-Elect, CIES