Dear Roy:

Congratulations and welcome to Penn State! You have been admitted into an Altoona College major as an advanced standing (transfer) student for Fall 2005. This major will be completed in its entirety at Penn State Altoona. If you are considering trying to change into a different major at a later date, please note that some Penn State majors are not available to you as an advanced standing student. Please contact our office immediately if you have questions about the major into which you have been admitted.

At Penn State Altoona, we have approximately 3,900 students from all areas of Pennsylvania and a variety of other states and countries. We offer a wide variety of academic programs along with exciting out of classroom opportunities including sports, student organizations, and cultural experiences. In addition, Altoona's proximity to State College provides easy access to football games, cultural events, and social activities at the University Park campus as well. We invite you to explore Penn State Altoona's website at www.aa.psu.edu to learn more about becoming part of the Penn State family.

Penn State wants promising students like you. We believe that our campus provides a supportive atmosphere in which to continue your college studies. When you graduate from Penn State, you will have a degree from a world-renowned university.

If you have any questions or wish to arrange a visit to Penn State Altoona, please call (814) 949-5466 or (800) 848-9843. We look forward to you joining the Penn State family beginning Fall 2005.

Sincerely,

Richard K. Shaffer

Dear Prospective Penn State Altoona Student:

Congratulations Enclosed is your offer of admission to Penn State Altoona for Fall 2005. I am delighted that you are planning to join the Altoona College community, and I am looking forward to your arrival.

To accept your offer of admission, it is imperative that you pay your enrollment fees as soon as possible. To save time, and thereby ensure that you will be able to schedule courses for the fall semester in a timely fashion, I encourage you to pay your fees at the Penn State Altoona Bursar's Office rather than sending the money to the University Park Campus. You can either mail the fees or pay in person, the Bursar's Office is located in Room W-111 of the E. Raymond Smith Building.

Once you have paid the enrollment fees, you will become a paid accept student and will be able to proceed with registration for courses for the fall semester At that point in time, you may contact Ms. Templon in the Division of Undergraduate Studies Office, and she will arrange for you to meet with an advisor Ms. Templon can be reached at (814) 949-5158.

Again, welcome to Penn State Altoona. If you have any questions regarding the enclosed information please contact me immediately at (814) 949-5158.

Sincerely,

Joann M. Shaffer
DUS Programs Coordinator

Dear Roy,

Each year, Penn State receives applications from a great many students of academic and personal promise. After a careful review of the academic credentials you provided, we are convinced that you possess the ability to meet the educational challenges and opportunities of our university. Therefore, it is my pleasure to offer you, based on your choices of academic programs and campuses, admission to Altoona College Business for Fall 2005 at the Penn State Altoona campus. Congratulations and welcome to Penn State.

Please note that your offer of admission is conditional until you complete the requirements explained on page two of the enclosed Guide for Students Offered Transfer Admission brochure.

The Guide for Students Offered Transfer Admission will help you prepare to accept our offer of admission. Inside, you will find instructions for accepting the offer, the conditions of the offer, instructions for reading the Evaluation of Transferable Credit Form, information about student aid, a list of phone numbers for commonly contacted offices, and a brief description of the events that will occur between the time you accept the offer and your first day of classes.

There is much for you to consider as you make your decision about attending Penn State. Now would be an excellent time to visit the Altoona campus and learn first-hand of the experiences that await you. Altoona campus staff members are available to answer your questions and to help arrange your visit. I encourage you to call or write for assistance.

It is with great pride that I invite you to join our university community

Sincerely,

Randall C. Deike
