

TO: YOU TEACH PROGAM

Phone:	(949) 854-4791 Home office; preferred number (949) 824-6901 Office
Fax:	(949) 824-2803
E-Mail:	aschwegl@uci.edu
Home page	www.humanities.uci.edu/spanishandportuguese/Faculty/Schwegler/schwegler.html

Date: November 21, 2008

Dear colleague(s),

The purpose of this letter is to lend support to Roy Chan's planned one-unit seminar entitled "24% and The Law". Roy will conduct the course here at UCI in the Spring of 2009. As a current 5th year double major in Criminology, he seems sufficiently prepared to carry out the task with success.

This seminar will be run entirely by him, though I will be the person in charge for verifying that the course will be in compliance with Academic Senate regulations. I will also make sure that the course has a clear and equitable system for grading.

As mentor, I agree to submit a grade for the two units of independent study (either through a 199 course in my school or through University Studies (197A) associated with the student's development of the seminar in Fall 2008. And I do intend to visit his class twice during the quarter, so that I can make sure that everything is in good order. I believe that Roy has the intellect, ability and responsibility to prepare an academically valuable course by the end of Fall 2008, and to facilitate that course effectively in Spring 2009.

Sincerely,

Prof. Armin Schwegler

Professor of Spanish Linguistics
Director, Global Cultures
Associate Editor, Journal of Pidgin and Creole Languages

